MONEY AVAILABLE FOR BORROWERS

Find us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/TakeBackYourCash.

Class action lawsuits were filed on behalf of Borrowers who took loans from Cash Store or Instalozans in Ontario after September 1, 2011. The lawsuits say that Cash Store and Instalozans Ontario payday loans had an unlawful structure and that Borrowers were charged too much money on their payday loans.

Borrowers are now able to request settlement money.

WHO CAN REQUEST MONEY?

You should complete a simple Request Form if you took a payday loan, including a "line of credit", at an Ontario location of Cash Store or Instalozans on or after September 1, 2011.

HOW DO I GET MONEY?

Go to www.TakeBackYourCash.com and complete the simple form before October 31, 2016.

Borrowers can get a minimum of $50, depending on claims volumes, and possibly more. The process is easy, flexible, and costs nothing. It has been designed so that you should not need documents to make a request for money.

Cash Store and others have provided Borrowers' contact information and information on their loans as part of the settlements. The Court has approved the sharing of that information to help Borrowers get money.

Any information you provide will only be used to help you in the process. It will not be shared with any debt collectors or anyone else.

After you submit your request, it will be reviewed for accuracy by the Claims Administrator. Go to: www.TakeBackYourCash.com for more information.

HOW MUCH MONEY CAN I GET?

You will receive a minimum of $50, subject to claims volumes, but you may be entitled to more money.

Collect what is owed to you now by completing the form online at www.TakeBackYourCash.com.

DOES IT COST ANYTHING TO REQUEST A PAYMENT?

No, it costs absolutely nothing to request a payment.
